Visually I would change the copper to what the current bronze is, and the bronze to a sort of dark gold color. Also maybe change the copper/tin powder texture. I really like the greenish gray for tin though. And maybe change the black diamond ore to look less like coal and more like a black emerald.

On future plans: Bugs will continue to arise and be removed in 1.6, when I plan to add a dragon or two. As far as new ores go, there will be a few more. Planned structures that didn't make the cut in 1.5 will appear in 1.6, such as pirate ships. I also hope to be able add in more magic to it, and even more bows.-Sincerely, TheTemplar
